Sir:

In the above-referenced application, please replace drawing Figs. 3-5 for the attached Figs. 3-5. The only differences between the two sets of figures have to do with the illustration of the connection between the members designated by reference numbers 8 and 73. That is, in the new drawing figures, the manner in which they are shown to overlap as seen in the side views is correctly illustrated.

Respectfully submitted,

Yasushi NAKAIZUMI et al.
